Purpose:

This Comprehensive Plan of Development contains supporting information regarding Carbon County Development Permit applications for the Mud Springs Wind Ranch Project's Phase I through IV. The Mud Springs Wind Ranch project located in the Sage Creek Valley has four separate construction areas or phases of development. Each of the project phases will have separate ownership of the operating facilities as described herein. Each of the three wind ranch operating areas (Phases I, II and III) will have 80 MW of generation (40 wind turbines) and there will be a common power collection substation and transmission line (Phase IV) for export and delivery of the power to the regional power grid. The detailed information contained in this Plan of Development describes the ownership, location, construction and operations plans in support of the Development Permit Applications for each phase.
